

Dangerous Goods Regulations Awareness Course

One day course (9.00 – 5.00 pm) aims to provide distribution and warehouse personnel with a practical understanding of current Dangerous Goods regulations.

Practical guidelines on Loading and Inspection of Cargo Transport Units are covered.

New responsibilities have come into effect for those involved in consigning and transporting Dangerous Goods. General awareness / familiarisation and safety training should be given to relevant staff, whose job functions concern the carriage of dangerous goods.

Export Edge Training have designed this 1 day awareness course to meet the DG regulations for personnel engaged in certain functions of the transport of dangerous goods.

Export Edge Training have been awarded Course Recognition by the Marine Survey Office (MSO), Department of Transport and the Chartered Institute of Logistics and Transport.

This course is delivered by our experienced trainer, who is highly qualified in DGSA / ADR & IMDG regulations.

Upon successful completion, participants will receive a Dangerous Goods Regulations Awareness Certificate.
